

Instructions Guide to Cancel Residence Permit Application

In which situations you might need to cancel your application?

If you indicated any wrong data into your online application form (such as the purpose, your name, and surname, etc.), you need to cancel your online application and apply again. One of the most common mistakes that lead international students to cancel their applications is the incorrect residence permit types they select.

Please make sure that you carefully read out our instructions guides on how to fill out online application forms to avoid any mistakes. Canceling your application and filling out a new one is a time and effort consuming.

The cancellation process is presented with step-by-step explanations and screenshots below. Each page number corresponds to a new step.

Canceling Your Application

- ✦ Go to the webpage: e-ikamet.goc.gov.tr
- ✦ If it was your first-time application, click on “I lodge an application for a residence permit for the first time”
- ✦ If it was your renewal application, click on “I apply for the extension of the duration of residence permit”.

IMPORTANT

(!) Regarding actions and procedures on foreigners, Directorate General of Migration Management does not work with third natural persons and/or legal persons. However, recently, the number of false documents in residence permit applications submitted to Provincial Directorate of Migration Management has increased and it has been determined that those applications are mostly made by persons or companies working for a certain fee. Please, make your residence permit applications in person and do not rely on third natural persons or legal persons.

(!) In addition, legal action will be taken in accordance with Article 206 of Turkish Penal Code No. 5237 on foreigners who have made a false statement while applying for residence permit. In addition to this, their residence permit applications will be refused, their residence permit will be cancelled if it has been issued and removal procedures will be initiated for them. It is highly announced to those concerned.
